1. How well do you think you understand what Beyond Civility means by "communication for effective governance?"

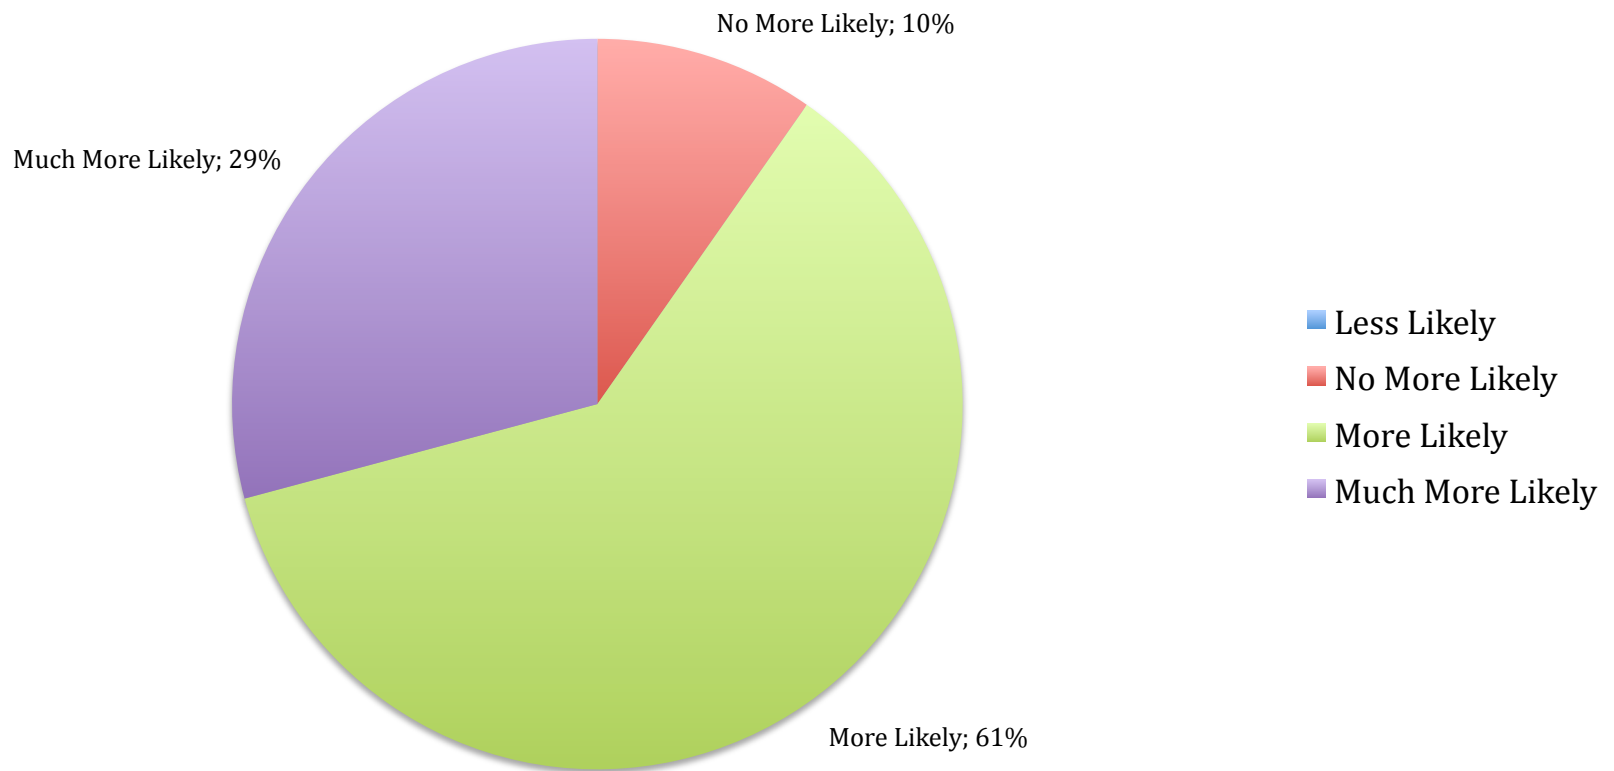

How much importance do you place on the way Councilmembers and other politicians speak on controversial public policy issues?

How committed do you think most of tonight's Councilmember panelists are to communicating for effective governance?

How much more or less likely are you as a result of tonight's Forum to respect a politician for speaking clearly, calmly, and civilly on controversial public policy issues?

How did tonight's Forum affect the likelihood that you will communicate more carefully about controversial topics in the future?
